RANGEL DE MARIA: CONSTANT MOTION

Thurs, Jan 7 – Sat, Jan 30, 2010
Reception: Thursday, Jan 7, 6–8pm

SEATTLE, December 15, 2009 -- Monarch Contemporary is pleased to announce an a large scale installation by artist Benito Rangel de Maria.

In "Constant Motion" the artist utilizes a locomotive engine to address the temporary qualities of place. The installation is created with the main image printed on ten panels and suspended from the gallery wall. The 66" x 300" scale invites the viewer to contemplate our transparent and transitory qualities.

"My work investigates the multifaceted composition of contemporary life. These visual essays are an integration of layered images that utilize materials that replicate our own transparent and transitory qualities. By juxtaposing black and white archetypal images, I encourage the viewer to see beyond the limitations of the physical."

Complete resume and images available upon request.
